BANDANA DA CANDY CAT ENDING

- Go Back Here

Before you came to our school we had the first Blocker War, BWI if you will. It ended with around 18 casualties but one of them was a huge death, the worst death, his name was Neal.Fun. He was the best Website ever until he was blocked by the school but after this we struck back with the Nuclear Proxy Race that ended BWI.

Then when you dropped out of school for your adventure the balance broke causing them to spam block every Website, every last bit. They blocked and they blocked, we tried to fight back but they even got to the Unbl0cked Project and then Cool Math Games. Now all that is left is Interstellar, Retro Bowl, Cookie Clicker, Roblox, and The Kitty One. The Blocker War II ended with a victory for the enemy… but we will be back… stronger!!!
